

- Copper
 - Added as a secondary contaminant for aesthetic purposes.
 - also has an action level of 1.3 ppm in the Primary Drinking Water Regulations.
- Fluoride
 - The State has determined a value of 0.8-1.2 ppm as an optimum operating range where artificially adjusted.
 - is also included in the State Primary Drinking Water Regulations.